Washington Independent Telecommunications Association is different. We know what matters to you because we are you. Our companies work within local communities to bring people together. No corporate big wigs in a far off corner office here. Just the hard working men and women of your neighborhood. Let us show you what your business means to us. Because when your repairman is also your neighbor, you know you're in good hands.

compassion

Washington Independent Telecommunications Association is different. We have a passion for bringing people together. Whether you live on the prairies of the Palouse or in the heights of the Cascades, we want to provide you the products and services you deserve. Our companies work together to make sure that wherever you are, you don't have to be alone. Let us connect you. Because when it matters most, we will be there for you.

Washington Independent Telecommunications Association is different. Whether it's grandma's old PC or your student's brand new laptop, we promise to be there for you. Our network of companies means that whenever you need our help, there will be someone there. A real live person with the knowledge to get you connected and on your way. So let us show you a little small town hospitality. Because when it comes to our service, we always guarantee the best.
